

Curriculum Vitae

Michael L. Pantano, FFCSI
Principal

- EDUCATION AOS Degree with High Honors - Culinary Arts
Culinary Institute of America
New Haven, Connecticut (now located in Hyde Park, New York)
- BS Degree - School of Hotel and Restaurant Management
Widener University
Chester, Pennsylvania
- POSITIONS HELD Culinary Advisors
Principal
1993 – Present
- Cini-Little International, Inc.
Headquarters, Rockville, Maryland
Vice President
1980 - 1993
- Saga Corporation
Menlo Park, California
1978 - 1980
- Manager, Product Evaluation
Dobbs Houses, Inc.
Memphis, Tennessee
1975 – 1978
- Foodservice Manager, Foodservice Director
Various Locations
Saga Corporation
Menlo Park, California
1972 – 1975
- US Navy/US Navy Reserve
Attained rank of E-5 (Vietnam-era Service)
1967 – 1972
- PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS Professional Member, Foodservice Consultants Society International (FCSI)
1995, Elected to the Board of Directors, FCSI
1999-2000, President, FCSI
2001-2002, Immediate Past President, FCSI
2001-2006, Member and Chairman, FCSI Council of Professional Standards
2004, Named to the FCSI Council of Fellows
Past Member, Board of Directors, Neighborhood Design Center, Baltimore, MD
Past Member, Society for Foodservice Management
Member, Alumni Associations of the Culinary Institute of America and Widener University
- ARTICLES AND SPEECHES Numerous speeches and seminars delivered to trade and professional audiences.
Numerous articles written for various trade and professional publications